

LAWCHA

THE LABOR AND WORKING-CLASS HISTORY ASSOCIATION

LAWCHA.org

LAWCHA is an organization of scholars, teachers, students, labor educators, and activists who seek to promote public and scholarly awareness of labor and working-class history through research, writing, and organizing.

Membership Benefits

- One-year subscription to Labor: Studies in the Working-Class History of the Americas
- Online access to all back issues of Labor
- Our twice-yearly newsletter detailing member activity, civic engagement, and our comprehensive labor history bibliography
- Eligibility for our many awards and prizes
- Access to online resources for educators

Membership Levels

- Individual Subscription

Includes non-affiliated individuals, independent scholars, educators, and professors.

$50/year

- Student Subscription

Includes all students of any age and in any institution, with verification

$25/year

LAWCHA.org/Join